

Temp: 25
Humidity: 91

It's Some News!
Friday, January 01, 2021

Temp: 25
Humidity: 91

It's Some News!
Friday, January 01, 2021

Covid: Illegal New Year party at Essex church broken up

Objects are thrown and officers threatened as they break up the New Year's Eve party in Essex.

Covid-19 in the UK: How many coronavirus cases are there in your area?

Explore the data on coronavirus in the UK and find out how many cases there are in your area.

First Minneapolis police death since George Floyd captured on bodycam

Footage is released of the first police-involved death in the US city since George Floyd's in May.

How Misinformation Lit The Fire Under A Year Of Political Chaos In Michigan

From protests, to the alleged plot to kidnap Gov. Whitmer, to false claims of election fraud, here's how conspiracy theories were allowed to fester through misinformation in Michigan politics.

Tottenham-Fulham postponement unprofessional - Mourinho

Tottenham boss Jose Mourinho criticises how Spurs' game against Fulham was called off on Wednesday because of a Covid outbreak among their opponents.

Carney deletes Twitter account after online abuse

Karen Carney leaves Twitter three days after a tweet by Leeds United questioning her comments as a pundit led to online abuse.

Norway landslide: Body found as rescuers search Gjerdrum landslide

Nine people are still missing, two days after a hillside collapsed due to flowing clay mud.

We must play 'out of our skin' to reach World Test Championship final - Root

Captain Joe Root says England "will do everything we can" to reach the World Test Championship final at Lord's in June.

